

Dear MCC Credential Candidate:

Congratulations on taking this important step in your career. Pursuing the MCC credential demonstrates your commitment to reaching the highest standards of the coaching profession.

The purpose of the ICF Credentialing Program is to:

1. Establish and administer minimum standards for credentialing professional coaches and coach-training programs.
2. Assure the public that participating coaches and coach-training programs meet or exceed these minimum standards.
3. Reinforce professional coaching as a distinct and self-regulating profession.

Below are four documents you need to familiarize yourself with before filling out the application as these documents will assist you in completing the online application.

Here are four documents you will want to read thoroughly before you begin the online application.

1. Coaching Core Competencies

<http://www.coachfederation.org/research-education/icf-credentials/core-competencies/>

THIS IS NOT THE ANSWER

Upload 1: Completion of Coach-Specific Training

MCC applicants are required to have attained a minimum of 200 Hours of Coach-Specific Training.

At least 160 of the hours must be:

- Direct interaction with a trainer (voice-to-voice or in-person training; not cyber courses, mail-in courses, or self-study);
- From a program other than ICF conference, SIG, Virtual Education, or chapter events; and
- Teaching the ICF Core Competencies (all Core Competencies must be covered).

The remaining hours may be self-study, or from an ICF event, or teaching coaching-related topics, or a combination of those. However, all hours must be part of a program with the purpose of training coaches.

If your training is not Coach-Specific, your application will be denied. Therefore, please realistically assess whether your training meets the below definitions.

Coach-Specific Training is:

- ❑ Training from an Accredited Coach Training Program (ACTP) or a program that has received the ICF Approved Coach-Specific Training Hours (ACSTH) designation, or
- ❑ Training that is specifically marketed as teaching coaching skills, that teaches coaching skills or teaches how to apply technical skills in a coach-like manner and teaches coaching skills in accordance with the ICF Core Coaching Competencies.

Training that is not accepted as Coach-Specific Training:

- ❑ Training that is marketed as teaching other skills, even though the skills can be used by a coach in some manner, does not count as Coach-Specific Training.
- ❑ In addition, personal development courses (such as Forum, Landmark, Lifespring, Life Training, Science of the Mind, etc.) do not count as Coach-Specific training.
- ❑ Finally, education in other areas such as psychology, counseling, NLP, etc., does not count as Coach-Specific Training unless it was actually taught as coach training and from an ICF Core Competencies perspective.

If your Coach-Specific Training has received an ICF accreditation either as part of an ACTP or ACSTH, you need only provide a list of courses taken and written evidence from the program attesting to the total number of Coach-Specific Training hours completed.

Documentation of your Coach Specific Training Hours requires two forms of proof:

1. Completion of the chart below listing all of your Coach Specific Training Hours, and
2. Written acknowledgement of successful completion from the sponsoring organization that validates your successful completion of the course and includes the number of Coach-Specific Training Hours awarded. This could be in the form of a certificate, transcript, or letter.

Coach-Specific Training Record

For each entry written acknowledgement must be uploaded

You may use your own computer generated forms, however be sure to include all data columns.

Dates	Sponsoring Organization with Contact Information	Course Name	Instructor(s)	Class Description	ICF Core Competencies Taught	SCLH's
2/15/01 - 5/15/01	John Doe Coach Training Academy (888)123-1567	Listening Skills for Coaches	Jane Doe, MCC	Teaches coaches the art of listening for the client's agenda, what is said, what is unsaid, the client's strengths and client blocks.	Establishing coaching agreement, coaching presence and active listening.	12 hours

Please Note

If an applicant has created and taught Coach-Specific Training programs of sufficient length to meet the hours requirement for a specific credential, then that program (or hours) may be counted as Coach-Specific Training for the applicant. In order to qualify for Coach-Specific Training credit, under this rule, the applicant must present evidence of authorship, a definitive outline of the course and for each class in the course including an explanation of the ICF Core Competencies taught in each class. The applicant must also submit evidence of delivery of the course. No more than three co-authors may receive credit under this rule and each co-author must have delivered each class in the course. Coach-Specific Training credit is only given for authorship and the first delivery of the course. Multiple deliveries of the same or similar courses will not be given Coach-Specific Training credit.

Upload 2: Record of Mentor Coaching

Instructions: The application requires the applicant* to provide proof in the form of a log listing hours spent working with a mentor coach. Documentation must be uploaded at the time of application.

Important: Please note that applicants who meet either of the following conditions are exempt from the Mentor Coaching requirements as they have already taken part in activities that fulfill this need:

Coaches who currently hold the ICF Professional Certified Coach credential (PCC).

or

Applicants who have successfully completed an ICF Accredited Coach Training Program (ACTP), and have documented completion of that program in Upload 1 of this guideline.

For purposes of credentialing, mentor coaching means an applicant being coached on their coaching skills rather than coaching on practice building, life balance, or other topics unrelated to the development of an applicant's coaching skill.

The requirement for the MCC credential is: 10 hours over three months with a qualified mentor coach.

This requirement is intended to help applicants prepare for participation in the ICF Portfolio exam. The ICF highly recommends that Portfolio applicants work with their mentor coaches in preparation for the exam and its oral demonstrations.

The Mentor Coaching requirement must be fulfilled prior to submitting your application.

(Example: You must have completed a minimum of three months and 10 hours of mentor coaching prior to today's date if you were to submit your application today.)

Qualifications for Mentor Coach:

- If you live in the United States or Canada, you are required to have been mentor coached by a coach who holds an ICF MCC credential for a minimum of 10 hours over a minimum of three months.
- If you live outside of the United States or Canada, you are required to have been mentor coached by a coach who holds an ICF Credential, or who is actively involved in an ICF Chapter, or who is actively involved in another coaching association that holds similar definitions of coaching as the ICF. You are required to have been coached for a minimum of 10 hours over three months.

Group coaching may count toward the mentoring requirement of 10 hours within the framework described. No more than 70 percent of the required mentoring hours (that is seven hours) can come from group coaching. Additionally, the group being mentored may not consist of more than 10 participants. Please list your mentor coach(es), their qualifications, their contact information, when you were coached, and the total number of hours coached.

See example of mentor coaching log on the next page.

Mentor Coaching Log

Create a Mentor Coaching Log in the same format as shown below to document your Mentor Coaching hours.

You may use your own computer generated forms, however be sure to include all data columns.

(sample) John Doe	MCC	jdoe@noe-mail.com	2/03 - present	30

Upload 3: Record of Client Coaching Hours

Instructions: This part of the guideline demonstrates the requirement of the applicant to provide proof in the form of a log listing hours spent working with clients as a coach. Documentation must be uploaded at the time of application.

MCC applicants are required to have coached for 2,500 hours with a minimum of 2,250 for compensation. Your client-coaching log must reflect a list of at least 35 clients.

In keeping with the ICF Code of Ethics, you must obtain consent from your clients to release their names to ICF and for the Application Review Committee (ARC) to contact them in the event it becomes necessary. Should the ARC deem it necessary to contact clients in order to confirm they were coaching clients of the applicant, the ARC does not discuss the specific topics of the coaching.

*Client information submitted with ICF Credentialing applications is viewed only by designated members of the ICF Application Review Committee and ICF staff. Client contact information may be used to verify the information presented by applicants. Client names and contact information are never shared or sold to a third party or used for any purpose other than review of application files for ICF Credentialing.

Your coaching log* may include any of the following:

- Coaching of individuals
- Coaching of groups
- Coaching internally for an organization or paid for by a third party

The required coaching log is shown at the bottom of the next page.

What constitutes a client-coaching hour?

- A client-coaching hour is 60 minutes of actual coaching with someone who has hired you as a coach and not in any other capacity.
- Paid hours shall be any hours for which any kind of amount of compensation, including barter, is received.
- Only 10 percent of the minimum hours needed to qualify for the Credential can be pro-bono hours, including complimentary sessions.
- Teaching coaching classes does not count as client-coaching hours.
- There shall be no limitation of client-coaching hours by specialization or niche.

On your Coaching Log, please include the following information for each client:

- Client name(s)
- Contact information
- Dates of coaching relationship
- Total hours in coaching relationship, paid and pro-bono

Group Coaching:

- In order to count as client-coaching hours, a coaching group can have no more than 15 clients as participants.
- Group coaching shall be documented by listing the group name, number of group participants and full contact information for one person, who shall represent the group
- One hour of group coaching counts as one client-coaching hour, not the number of hours multiplied by the number of clients in the group.

Internal Coaching with an Organization/Paid for by Third Party:

If coaching is paid for by a third party or done as part of applicant's employment, it counts as paid coaching. Internal coaching hours count as paid hours toward an ICF Credential when coaching is a designated part of the applicant's job description. Coaching of a direct report (your boss) may not be considered in the coaching hours.

*If the organization or third party has a confidentiality policy that prevents disclosure of individual names and contact information, applicants should document the hours with the organization as follows:

- 1) List the organization/third party name in the log with the total number of coaching hours.
- 2) Select one contact person at the organization/third party and list their full name and contact in the log. The contact person should be someone familiar with your work, who can verify that the number of hours presented in the log is an accurate reflection of your coaching experience with the organization.
- 3) The contact person should provide you with a letter of reference testifying to the information in the log, explaining your role with the organization, and the organization's confidentiality policy.
- 4) Illustrate your work with individuals at the organization by assigning aliases for each individual (For example, you may list each individuals initials or assign designations of client A, client B, etc.) and listing the start/end dates and hours spent with each individual.

Coaching Log Sample: (This is the required format for the coaching log)

Example	Client Name	Contact Information: E-mail or Phone	Start/ End Date	Paid Hours	Pro-Bono Hours
Individual Client	1) Jane Doe	janedoe@nomail.com 111.222.2222	2/03—11/03	List hours	List hours

Upload 4: Coaching Reference Letters

Instructions: This part of the guidelines shows that the applicant is required to provide letters of reference from three qualified coaches that have heard or observed you coaching. Documentation must be uploaded at the time of application.

MCC applicants are required to submit three letters of reference from qualified* coaches who have heard or observed your coaching.

Your mentor coach may write one of the three letters, if they meet the qualifications described below.

For applicants who:

- Live in the United States or Canada
 - Provide three letters of reference regarding your coaching skills and expertise from coaches that currently hold an MCC Credential. Your mentor coach, if they have heard you coach, may write a letter of reference to meet this requirement.
- Live outside of the United States or Canada
 - Provide three letters of reference regarding your coaching skills and expertise from coaches that currently hold an ICF Credential or who are actively involved in an ICF Chapter, or who are actively involved in another coaching association that holds similar definitions of coaching as the ICF. If not an ICF Credentialed coach, the letter must detail the writer's qualifications to assess the applicant's skill level. Your mentor coach, if they have heard you coach, may write a letter of reference to meet this requirement.

Requirements for each Coach Reference Letter are stated below:

- Dated within 12 months of the day you begin uploading your application.
- Clearly states the coach's support.
- Comes from coaches who have actually heard or observed you coaching.
- States that the writer has heard or observed you coaching.
- Contains a statement by the coach that they believe you coach at the MCC level and therefore are recommending you for the MCC Credential.
- Written on the referring coach's stationery or from their e-mail address. It may be forwarded through your e-mail, but it must clearly have originated from their e-mail address. It will not be accepted if it does not originate from their e-mail or come on their stationery if submitted via regular mail. If the letter was sent in an e-mail, please print the letter in a way that showcases the message header.

PLEASE DO NOT FORWARD E-MAIL REFERENCES TO THE ICF HEADQUARTERS.

PLEASE UPLOAD WITH YOUR APPLICATION.

Coaching References Checklist

(Please answer the questions below regarding your Reference Letters.)

Are both references dated within 12 months of the application date?	YES NO	Are both references written on the referring coach's or writer's stationery or from their e-mail address with the message header showing where the message originated?	YES NO
Do both references clearly state the coach's or writer's support?	YES NO	For US/Canada applicants, do the coaches hold the required MCC Credential?	YES NO N/A
Do both references state that the coaches have actually heard or observed you coaching?	YES NO	For non-US/Canada applicants using non-ICF Credentialed references, do the writers list their qualifications as a coach?	YES NO N/A
Do both references state that the writers have actually heard or observed you coaching?	YES NO	Are both reference letters and/or e-mails uploaded to this application?	YES NO
Do both references contain a statement by the coach or writer they believe you coach at the MCC level and, therefore, recommend you for the MCC credential?	YES NO

Important! An answer of "NO" to any of these questions requires attention on your part prior to submitting your online application. Reference letters that do not meet these requirements will not be accepted.

Do not forward e-mail references to the ICF Office or mail references separately to the ICF Office. Only reference letters that have been uploaded with your online application will be accepted.

Upload 5: Recording of Coaching Session

All portfolio applicants must participate in the three-part ICF Portfolio exam in order to be awarded the MCC Credential. The recorded exam is an evaluation of your coaching with a real client, as captured in a recorded coaching session.

In compliance with this requirement, all portfolio applicants must upload:

1. A recording of an actual client coaching session between you and a paid or pro-bono client (sessions that occur as a part of coach training may not be used). The ICF can only accept the following formats: CD (.mp3, .wmp, or .wav formats). ICF CANNOT accept Audiocassettes (cassette tapes) or Micro-cassettes (MC-60 or MC-90). The session length should only last between 30-40 minutes. Keep at least one copy for your records.

2. A release form is to be signed by the client being recorded and you, authorizing you to record the session for the purposes of evaluating your coaching competency. We want to assure you that only your reviewers hear the recording and they will not receive your client's full name. Please print off the below release and upload this release to the online application.

Please read the following before uploading your recording:

- We suggest that you record several coaching sessions before you upload to the application.
- Listen to your recording. Make sure the sound is clear and the reviewers can easily understand the recording.
- Recordings that cannot be heard clearly cannot be used and a new recording will be requested. This will delay the process significantly.
- Choose a recording to submit that you believe demonstrates a wide variety of the ICF Core Coaching Competencies.

REQUIRED.

Keep at least one copy for your records. One copy will be kept in a secure area at ICF Headquarters.

THE ICF PORTFOLIO EXAM:

The ICF portfolio exam measures your ability to coach and to demonstrate the ICF Core Coaching Competencies. The exam is thorough and is graded by Master Certified Coaches. The exam process requires:

- Submission of a recorded coaching session. (Upload 5)
- Completion of a written exam consisting of short answer questions and three case studies. This exam is administered through e-mail after your application passes technical review. All applicants are given 48 hours to complete the exam. (Note: Applicants who hold the PCC credential are exempt from the written exam)
- Coaching “live” on a telebridge with two MCC assessors.

Preview of MCC Portfolio Exam Scheduling:

- Once your application has completed Technical Review and your name reaches the top of the queue you will be contacted by the ICF to schedule your MCC Exam.
- ICF will try to offer each applicant several MCC Exam time availabilities within a two-week notice.
- After selecting an Exam date and time from the list sent to you please contact ICF immediately so that Exam date will be reserved for you.
- To complete the MCC application process in the timeframe given it is best to coordinate your schedule to fit one of the Exam Time openings.

Helpful Hints about the Portfolio Exam:

- To prepare, begin reading the competencies and observing them in your coaching.
- It's also helpful if you have your mentor coach evaluate your coaching and give you feedback on how you demonstrate each of the competencies in your coaching and where you might need to practice a competency more.
- We encourage you to look at the exam as a true opportunity to renew your connection with your coaching skills, to study and absorb the core competencies again, and to demonstrate to your peers that you are committed to being the best for your clients and for our profession.

Exam Fee: $150 USD Please do not include the exam fee with your application. You will be notified when your exam fee is required.

Upload 8: Written and Live Exam Preferences

Instructions: The second part of the ICF exam is a written test that measures your ability to coach and to demonstrate the ICF Core Coaching Competencies. The exam is thorough and is graded by Master Certified Coaches. Please note that applicants holding a current PCC credential will not be required to take the written exam.

The written exam process requires: Completion of a written exam consisting of short answer questions and three case studies. This exam is administered through e-mail after your application passes technical review. All applicants are given 48 hours to complete the exam. Once your application has cleared a technical review you will be contacted to schedule your written exam.

In what language(s) would you prefer to take your Written Exam?

English French German Spanish Other (contact ICF)

LIVE EXAM

Instructions: The third and final part of the ICF exam is participation in a “live” oral coaching demonstration. Each applicant must sit for a ‘not-to-exceed 30 minutes’ live oral exam, administered by an assessor team via telebridge. Once your application has cleared a technical review you will be contacted to schedule your live exam.

The live exam may be conducted in a variety of languages as indicated below. Please contact the ICF Headquarters if another language is preferred for your live exam.

What Language(s) would you prefer for your Live Oral Exam?

English Danish French German Italian
 Portuguese Spanish Swedish Other (contact ICF)

Notes Regarding Exam Scheduling

Once your application has completed Technical Review you will be contacted by the ICF to schedule your written and live oral exam.

ICF will try to offer each applicant several time availabilities within a two-week notice.

After selecting a date and time from the list sent to you please contact ICF immediately so that exam date will be reserved for you.
